

Candy Introductions

Setup for Candy Introductions

Purchase a bag of M&Ms, enough for each person to be able to have at least five pieces.

Instructions for How to Play

Pass around the candy and tell each participant to choose anywhere from 1 to 5 pieces. Instruct them not to eat it yet, though. After they have chosen their candy, you will tell them what each candy type/color represents.

If there is a whiteboard or chalkboard present, write on the board the following:

- Red - Favorite hobbies
- Green - Favorite place on earth
- Blue – Teaching situation (Grade level, courses, etc)
- Yellow – Favorite activity for students
- Brown – Professional Development (Likes in and dislikes of recent learning)
- Orange - Wildcard (tell us anything about yourself!)

Each person takes turns introducing himself or herself, beginning with their name and then saying one fact for each candy type that they have. This easy introduction game should go relatively quickly (assuming they weren't greedy and that they didn't take too many pieces of candy!)
